

RENTING OR LIVING IN AN APARTMENT? KNOW YOUR RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The protection for tenants may be very different in Ontario from where you lived before.

As newcomers to Canada, you may not be aware of all your rights and responsibilities as tenants when looking for suitable housing to settle down

To avoid costly disputes and have peace of mind at home

Please come to an information session:

Tenants and Landlords' Rights and Responsibilities

Learn about the New Standard Residential Lease which took effect in Ontario on April 30, 2018

Time:

10:00 am to 12:00 pm
Friday July 20th 2018

Location:

Vietnamese Association, Toronto (VAT)
3585 Keele St. Unit 13, North York ON

Presenter:

Mr. Lu Ji from The Housing Help Centre

To register or ask for more information, please contact Lorna Tabulao at VAT: 416-636-8887 or lorna@vatoronto.ca

Refreshments are available during interactive mingle period at end of session

VAT is a non-profit charitable organization serving newcomers since 1979

Funded by:

Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada

Financé par:

Immigration, Réfugiés et Citoyenneté Canada